Le cœur de la culture catalane

Port: Barcelona

Mode d'arrivée: DOCK

Départ: 20:00

Plongez au cœur de la culture catalane, dans une cité mêlant avec raffinement traditions immuables et effervescence urbaine. Flânez dans le Quartier gothique au fil de ruelles labyrinthiques, à la découverte des prouesses architecturales de Gaudi. Cédez à l'appel des terrasses conviviales pour y déguster des tapas typiques de la région et siroter une bière fraîche avant de mettre le cap sur un club de plage pour vous détendre au soleil. Poursuivez l'aventure jusqu'au paisible Passeig de Gracia dont les édifices modernistes abritent les vitrines de marques iconiques. Au crépuscule, l'heure est venue de rejoindre les bars animés de La Rambla pour faire la fête dans une ambiance bohème et débridée. Si le style est un critère ultime à vos yeux, vous vivrez des moments inoubliables dans cette ville unique en son genre à bien des égards.

Naples : berceau de la culture italienne

Port: Port of Naples

Mode d'arrivée: DOCK

Arrivée: 09:00

Départ: 23:55

Nichée entre le puissant Vésuve et les caldeiras volcaniques des champs Phlégréens, Naples, berceau de la culture italienne, dévoile son passé à chaque coin de rue. Les églises baroques, les palais de la Renaissance italienne et les opéras néoclassiques vous laisseront bouche bée. Prenez le funiculaire jusqu'au sommet du Castel Sant' Elmo pour profiter d'une vue spectaculaire sur la baie de Naples et la péninsule de Sorrente, porte d'entrée de la sublime côte amalfitaine. Sous les rues pavées se cache une autre Naples : un dédale de tunnels souterrains creusés par les légions de colons romains et grecs. Attardez-vous encore un peu pour visiter les ruines antiques de Pompéi et d'Herculanum, ensevelies sous la colère du Vésuve, ou faites un saut jusqu'à la ravissante île de Capri.

Port: KOTOR

Arrivée: 09:00

Mode d'arrivée: DOCK

Départ: 19:00

La charmante baie de Kotor, creusée le long de la côte Adriatique du Monténégro, est un havre encore méconnu, dont les eaux couleur de jade reflètent de fières collines émeraude. Abritée entre les berges d'un fjord, la vieille ville de Kotor semble tout droit sortie d'un conte de fées. Ses formidables murailles, églises romanes et bastions médiévaux sont les témoins d'une histoire contrastée alternant carnivals masqués et tremblements de terre dévastateurs. Les influences méditerranéennes, italiennes en particulier, colorent la gastronomie, où se côtoient produits de la mer Adriatique, gelati et brodetto. À flanc de colline, Notre-Dame de la Santé offre un point de vue spectaculaire sur ce site patrimonial inscrit à l'UNESCO, un joyau d'architecture au cœur de paysages sublimes.

Kotor by Cable Car and E-biking in Lovćen National Park

Lovćen National Park is one of Montenegro's true jewels. A cable car will take you high into the mountains, where e-bikes await to take you to Njegoš Mausoleum at the summit of Lovćen mountain. This mausoleum is the resting place of a Prince-Bishop of Montenegro, Petar II Petrović-Njegoš, and remains a potent symbol of Montenegrin culture. After time spent in the tranquillity of this national park, and with sweeping views of Boka Bay and the surrounding countryside, enjoy an effortless ride back down to the cable car and survey the magnificent scenery on the way.

Kotor on Foot and Montenegrin Treats

The town of Kotor overlooks striking Boka Bay and is blessed with some of the Adriatic region's most treasured architecture. Travel through Kotor's vibrant old town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and gaze at the St Tryphon's Cathedral, one of Montenegro's most beautiful religious buildings. Next, discover the 18th-century Grgurina Palace at the heart of the old town, which today houses the city's naval museum. Finally, experience Montenegrin hospitality and taste authentic Njeguši prosciutto, smoked cheese and local red wine in a welcoming taverna.

To the Heart of Budva and Kotor

Venture along the Adriatic Coast and experience the Budva Riviera – where clear waters meet historic architecture. Budva Old Town is one of the oldest settlements on the coast and lies on a small island, now silted over, that connects the town to the peninsula. Sheltered streets and shady alleys weave between the 15th-century ramparts, revealing generations of Adriatic cultures, influences and traditions. Later, drive to the coastal port of Kotor, which lies in the shadow of the limestone Dinaric Alps, where adventure entices travellers onwards.

Ostuni, Bright City on the Hill

Discover magnificent sea views and architectural singularity when you wander through Ostuni's lime-washed, flagstone streets. This ancient Pugliese town, known for its structures all being a bright white due to a limestone wash and enduring sunshine, was built over three hills and has its origins in the Stone Age. Doors and flowers offer bursts of colour in delightful contrast. From the top of the town, admire the ancient olive trees that have borne fruit for three millennia, and contemplate the mesmerising turquoise Adriatic Sea below. From the Piazza della Libertà to the old town, Ostuni is replete with Romanesque and Gothic buildings, such as the Cattedrale di Santa Maria Assunta. Gelato in hand, browse the shops or take in the sights and sounds before returning to the ship.

Visit Krka National Park

Your first stop in blissful Krka National Park is Lozovac. From here, you will explore the natural cascade barriers of the Park. This tour will take you to the most attractive part of the park— the Skradinski Buk waterfalls. The highest fall is 46 m (151 ft) high, which makes it the highest gypsum barrier in Europe. Above the falls, there is a large plateau that offers spectacular views. During your exploration, a visit is made to a small ethnological exhibition and the old mill, which is still functioning, demonstrating how it was used for grinding. We then head to Plastovo village and the home of the Sladić family, who will walk you through a tasting of their wines at Ante Sladić Vino. Produced using time-honoured methods and only indigenous grapes, these wines are unique to this region.
